

Auburn-Carl Lions Club passing out Dictionary to elementary school students.

Buford Lions on White Cane Day

Clarksville Lions

Clayton Lions planting trees

Dacula Lions Charter Night and Eye Screening at High School

Elberton Lions Clubs

Forsyth County Lions Club

For the Forsyth County News
Tom Curran, president of the Forsyth County Lions Club, presents Vickery Creek Middle School student Affra Mohamed with an award for the best poster as part of the club's "The Power of Peace" contest. Also pictured are her parents, Asani and Annal Mohamed, far left and right.

Jefferson Lions Club

ANNUAL ROTARY-LIONS CHRISTMAS DINNER

The annual Rotary-Lions Christmas dinner was recently held at the Jackson EMC auditorium, Jefferson. Santa was there to receive unwrapped gifts from members for the Jackson County Sheriff's Office toy drive and to give children of family members a present from Santa. "Santa expressed thanks to Rotary and Lions members for their great support to the community of Jefferson and Jackson County for the last year," organizers wrote in a statement.

Lavonia Lions Club

Lawrenceville Lions Club

Loganville Lions Club

Martin Lions Club

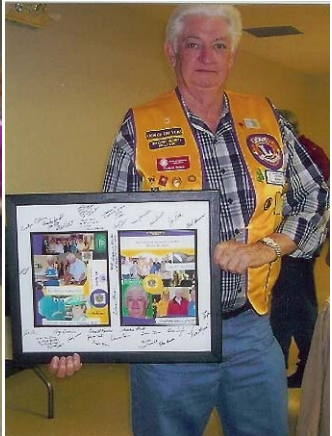

Norcross Lions Club

Oconee Lions Club

Snellville Lions Club

Toccoa Lions Club

Towns County Lions Club

Union County Lions Club

Lion D.G. Grace Clower makes official visit

Woody Gap School will participate in Lions' poster contest

Woody Gap Middle School students participating in peace poster contest

Woody Gap School in Suches, GA, will be participating in the Union County Lions Club peace poster contest. The contest is open to students ages 11, 12 and 13 years of age. Teachers Morgan, Friesen and Martin will be helping the students with the rules, conditions and deadlines of the contest. The theme of the contest is "The Power of Peace". Chairperson Lion Louise Little will be looking forward to receiving lots of beautiful artistic pictures. This contest is not only local but international. We will know the winner by February 1, 2010. We'll keep you posted. Good luck to all the students.

D.G. Grace Clower and UC Lions President Lisa Little

Lion Jeff Neal receives lapel pin from D.G. Grace Clower

L to r: Lion Gene Little, Past President of UC Lions; Lion Betty Gurr, Secretary of UC Lions;

Lion Marty Woods receives lapel pin from D.G. Grace Clower

