District Bulletin 18-D

MONTHLY BULLETIN FOR LIONS OF NORTHEAST GEORGIA

May 2010

District Governor
Grace Clower

Dear Lions of 18-D,

April has been an historic month for District 18-D Lions. On April 10th, we celebrated the 70th Anniversary of the Towns County Lions Club. It was great to have Past International President Jim Ervin with us for this great occasion. It is awesome that a club that was formed in 1940 is still serving the needs of their community.

The next great event was the Charter Night for the Cleveland Lions Club. Their club is moving forward with 34 members, and I hope they continue to grow and serve in their community.

We now have two new Lions Club in District 18-D, but we continue to lose Lions from our existing clubs. I would encourage all our clubs to look at what goes on at your meetings and your projects and make the changes that need to be made to help retain the members you have and to make your clubs stronger.

I enjoyed playing in the Winder Noon Lions' Golf Tournament, and I am looking forward to playing in the Snellville Lions and Oconee Lions Golf Tournaments. Speaking of having fun, our Cabinet Meeting this past Sunday was a great example. We ate BBQ, handed out awards, and enjoyed some great entertainment. There were three clubs competing for the first annual District 18-D Sing-Off. Clarkesville, Towns County, and Snellville clubs all had great entries. The award went to the Snellville Lions Club for their unusual rendition of "Stop, In The Name of Love" by Diana Ross and the Supremes. The best part of the competition was we raised $258 that will be donated to White Cane and Camp for the Blind. It was a great day of Food, Fun, and Fellowship.

I hope you all are continuing to advertise the "Grand Tour of Georgia" to benefit the Camp for the Blind. We have been asked to advertise this all over the State. If you have motorcycle clubs, sales showrooms or repair shops, please post the flyer there. Remember, you don't have to own a motorcycle to participate. I have already signed up, and I am looking forward to visiting many new places in our beautiful State.

We continue to seek pledges and donations for the Lighthouse Capital Campaign. I am so proud of 18-D that we have surpassed our goal. If your club has not pledged, I would encourage you to do so. Every pledge, no matter how big or how small, is important. I also had the pleasure of attending the "Night of Spectacles" to benefit the Lighthouse.

The next great event for Lions is our State Convention in Tifton May 28-30. I hope you are planning to attend. This Lions year is winding down, but I challenge all clubs in 18-D to set a goal of gaining at least one new member between now and June 30th. We have to tell our story in our own communities.

Thanks for all you do for Lionism!

Yours in Service,
DG Grace

How to Plan a Community Project

In Palmerston, Canada, a 19-acre abandoned, dilapidated rail yard in the middle of town was a community eyesore. The local Lions club saw the need to clean up the area. They also saw the possibility of turning it into an incredible public space for the whole community to enjoy and take pride in. Find out how Lions made this project happen. And get “Tips and Tools” you can use to plan a project like this in your community.

Transforming a Rail Yard in Canada

A 19-acre abandoned, dilapidated rail yard in the middle of town was a community eyesore. Overgrown grass, weeds and old railroad ties filled the yard. Vandalism and time were taking a toll on the former station. And 100 years of oil spills and coal use had contaminated some of the ground.

The Lions Step In

The Lions club in Palmerston saw the need to clean up the area. They also saw the possibility of making it an incredible public space for the whole community to enjoy and take pride in. And they got the entire community involved.

“It has been a partnership right from the beginning with the town and our Lions club and the residents of Palmerston,” says Dave Wilson of the Palmerston Lions Club. “Residents of Palmerston stop while we are working and lend a hand. They make donations. It’s been great the support we’ve had.”

Hard Work Pays Off

The Lions realize such a large project will take years to complete. They have worked at the park two times a week for three years, laying cobblestones, and putting in equipment and pathways. “We started with the front entrance, playground and splash pool and we’re continuing on,” says Joanne Klonikowski of the Palmerston Lions Club. “Now it’s a real gathering point. We’re going to have a memorial forest and stage areas and all sorts of lovely things including pathways and lighting.” A beautifully restored pedestrian bridge offers residents a commanding view of the park. And a restored locomotive engine – “old 81” – stands at the entrance to the park, near a Lions sign and statues of lions.

Fast Facts

Lions have more than 4,000 feet of eight-foot wide brick pathways to lay, as well as hundreds of trees to plant and stage and sports areas, including basketball and road hockey courts, to build.

Dear Lion,

Greetings my dear Lion friends. As we enter spring time in many parts of the world, I am most pleased to report our membership growth continues to blossom and grow to new, historic heights. Through March, we have reached +24,709 powered by great results in India and several other Asian countries, a continuing membership surge in China, and by improving trends in all parts of the world. Even today as we move towards the last week of April, the results are moving even higher, nearly crossing the +30,000 mark.

I am truly impressed by our collective results, and I am very proud of our District Governor Teams and Club Officers who have contributed most to our success. Let me share some success stories deserving special attention.

Eberhard J. Wirfs
International President

Move to Grow

So I ask all of you who belong to an existing, well established club:

- What can you do to take better care of your club and its members?
- What projects can you pursue to bring more appeal to your club?
- And simply where can your club go from here?

I know many of you have accepted the Move to Grow challenge of moving in new ways and in new directions to strengthen and enrich your own clubs. But I would really love to hear about your success stories so I can share those with Lions around the world. Please email me at DG2president@Lionsclubs.org.

In the meantime, please see the important information links below on the next Leadership Ginkgo challenge and the upcoming international convention in Sydney. I am confident that next month I will be writing with even more good news as we all work to Move to Grow our great association.

With cordial regards,

Eberhard J. Wirfs
International President

China

In China where Lionism took root only a few short years ago, we have grown by more than 50% this year, increasing from 4,000 members to more than 6,200. The growth is happening in most major cities in China, and three new provisional districts have been formed as a result. But most impressive of all, is the real spirit of service displayed by our Lions in China. Just last week, following the recent quake in western China, a group of Chinese Lions traveled for several days, under very difficult circumstances, to reach the affected areas with relief supplies. I sometimes wonder if my fellow Lions in my own district could respond in such a way.

Dual Strategy and the Ginkgo Leadership Award

The next ginkgo award emphasizes both aspects of the dual strategy: new growth and maintaining what we have through caring for existing clubs.

To qualify for the award, between February 1 and May 31, 2010, a district will have to:

- Charter 2 new clubs or reorganize 2 cancelled clubs
- Improve membership results from January 31, 2010
- Increase the average size of existing clubs by one member
- Have no clubs on status quo or suspension as of May 31, 2010

Other News

- Women at Lions now approaching 295,000 members
- Lions Quest expanded to three more countries
- Sightfirst treats 5 million people this year for river blindness and trachoma

Lions in Africa

Another story of success and inspiration are the Lions in Africa -- a continent known for 'despair' a few years ago which is now moving to be a continent of 'hope and development'. Lions in Africa have grown grow by 10% in since 2007-08 and are their own way to yet another stellar year. Most impressively, Africa Lions are leading through service. They not only lead some our more impressive global service projects but they have produced several lead gift donors for Campaign SightFirst II and LCIF's Lions Hope for Haiti relief fund.

Recognizing the African continent's further potential, I am very proud to report that your board of directors at our recent meeting in early April, passed a resolution to give more support for Africa, to treat the continent as its own distinct area in LCI, and to put the African continent on the pathway to becoming its own LCI constitutional area when it reaches a total membership of 30,000 - a feat that I know will be achieved soon.

Dual Strategy for All Lions

Our success stories span well beyond our new areas of China and emerging areas like Africa. For example, the country of Australia is having growth, most of Latin America and Europe too, and even the United States of America and Canada are doing quite well by historic standards - though I am convinced the latter two can make history this year by erasing past patterns.

But as highlighted below, the future of our organization will need to rely increasingly on the 'dual strategy.' The strategy is simple -- emphasizing on one side, that we need new clubs and membership growth to make up for those who leave or pass away, but on the other side, we need a focus on keeping the members we have and increasing the size of existing clubs to control long term retention.

"We need you"

We will need our children to become the members of the future but, in fact, we need your family members right now. "We need you" is the message that must be conveyed to current and prospective members. We need members to invite their partners and spouses to become Lions Club members and we need these new members to energize our clubs and open-up new avenues of service. The best place to look for qualified members may also be the closest -- right in our own homes.

There are many strategies that can help existing clubs grow, such as:

- Inviting more spouses and women through the We Need You campaign.
- Organizing recruiting campaigns using Lions Clubs International's "Best Practices."
- Forming club branches
- Identifying clubs below 20 members in need of special assistance.

We know there are Lions ready to respond. All we need do is ask.

- Come celebrate with the recipient of the 2009-10, LCI Humanitarian Award winner, Wanguri Mathai, who won the Nobel Peace Prize in 2004 for her "Greenbelt Movement."

- Come meet our 2009-10 Peace Poster winner, Yu-Min Chen, and see her impressive poster representing peace in our world
- And of course don't miss the first-ever Global Youth Music Contest event that promises to be a new tradition and a new way to celebrate the special talents of young people.

RETENTION

NAMES, UGLY LION RELATIONSHIPS, AND TOO MUCH WORK

(CLUB ACTIONS TO AVOID THE DISAPPEARANCE OF LIONS)

Do you know the names of every Lion in your club? Frankly, I have always had trouble remembering the names of everyone in my club. In fact, as I have told Lions over the years, when I first visited my soon to be Oconee Lions Club, I noticed that members were wearing name tags. What I thought at the time, and I have not changed my mind about, is that I could be a member of an organization that encouraged members to wear name tags!

It isn't knowing the names of the members of your club that is especially important though. Indeed, it isn't the names so much as knowing who the person is that has that name. That is, what do you know about the person with a name? Nevertheless, interaction starts with names. When you are introduced to a prospective member, you often only hear their name. Then, if your club is fortunate and this person becomes a member, the next time you see him or her, do you remember his or her name? In all likelihood, the answer is "No." Therefore, we are now back to the importance of the new member's sponsor to know your name and repeatedly introduce you until the new member gets a name tag!

New members need to begin to feel accepted in the club they have joined. What does it take to make this happen? As Lions understand, it is one of the duties of a Lion Tamer and past club presidents to greet members as they arrive. A new member definitely needs to be greeted, but it isn't just "thanking them for coming." Rather, new members need to be continuously linked to club members. Again, the new member sponsor has a significant duty here, but all members need to make certain that new Lions are continuously interact with fellow Lions. Over time multiple interactions form friendship relationships that solidly retain new members.

Unfortunately, all relationships between Lions are not positive. How does this happen? That is, since we all have the same sight and hearing related goals, how is it that we aren't all positively related to each other? There are numerous reasons, but some of them can be controlled by club leadership and members. It is here that Lions need to be sensitive about politics, religion, gender, race, etc. Among the controls here are avoiding the "minor things" like jokes that may end up negatively creating relationships between Lions. Interestingly, people often think that silence by others means that they agree with or approve of what someone has said, but this is not accurate. Negative relationships can potentially lead to the disappearance of club members.

The final club action item among the nine I have been discussing this year is one that many Lions are likely to not see coming. Clubs need to figure out a way to equalize the volunteer labor of their members. I still remember being around a member of my club who was continuously involved in every club activity and then one day he wasn't a member anymore! What behavioral research has discovered is that volunteers can become so intensely involved in club activities that they eventually remove themselves from the club. Yes, participation in events is volunteerism, but club leaders need to control their activities and the involvement of members. Losing a very active member is a real loss!

Yours in Lionism, Richard "Dick" Smith

We estimate that at least 80 students were screened. Special thanks go to: Lion Melissa Udell for coordinating efforts with Georgia Lions Lighthouse and obtaining the screening machines and related materials · Lion Jennifer Khaleel in arranging for our participation with the school · Lions Stephanie and Jeff Wolfe for getting the machines, support equipment and materials to the school, and conducting the “Lions share” of the screenings, and to · Lion David Buice of the Snellville club and our own Lion Phillip Saxton who were also instrumental in conducting the screenings. The screenings were very popular with the students and in high demand. Thanks again to all that made this possible. Well done!

These relationships take time, patience, trust and consistency. Young Life began with a few simple ideas about sharing the truth of God’s love with adolescents. Almost seven decades later, those simple ideas have become time-tested methods for reaching out to middle school, high school and college students in friendship and hope. Winder Noon Lions Club visited April 26. Those in attendance were PID Buddy and Carol Ouzts, President, Bob Long, and Lion Dottie Reynolds.

Toccoa Lions Club = Toccoa Lions Club Accomplishments for 2009 – 2010 = The most significant work that the Toccoa Lions Club accomplished this year and in previous years is helping over eighty needy people in Stephens County with eye examinations and eye glasses. The local sight conservation program is our main focus each year. Over the past three years ending June 30, 2009 the Toccoa Lions have provided glasses to 250 Stephens County residents. The next most significant work of the Toccoa Lions Club is assisting the Open Arms Clinic. This free medical clinic started in February 2006 with seed money from the Toccoa Lions Club has served over 550 needy residents in Stephens County to date. The Toccoa Lions Club has held a pancake breakfast the last two years with all the proceeds going to the Open Arms Clinic. This year the club raised $3,300.00 for the Open Arms Clinic. The next most significant work of the Toccoa Lions Club is assisting the Georgia Lions Lighthouse Foundation in Decatur. The Lions Lighthouse serves as a central clearing house and coordinates all the efforts of the 241 Lions Clubs in Georgia. In a typical year the Lighthouse will perform over 300 eye surgeries, provide glasses for over 2,500 needy Georgians and provide over 900 hearing aids for needy Georgians. This year the Toccoa Lions did a public solicitation in front of Wal-Mart during White Cane Days raising nearly $1,000.00. This coupled with a matching grant from Wal-Mart will provide $2,000.00 to the Lighthouse for operations. In addition to supporting the current needs of the Lighthouse the Toccoa Lions Club pledged $10,000.00 toward the Lions Lighthouse capital campaign to build a new Lighthouse and expand services. $1,000.00 of this pledge has been sent to the Lighthouse in April 2010. The Toccoa Lions provide a rest area during the Toccoa Harvest Festival the first weekend in November each year. This is a place for people to sit in the shade, drink water and rest. At the rest area the Toccoa Lions provide free vision screening tests. Over eighty people were screened during the Harvest Festival this year. The Toccoa Lions also provided vision screenings at the YMCA's Healthy Kids Day fair this April. The Toccoa Lions also work with youth by sponsoring a little league team in Stephens County. The club financially supports the Georgia Lions Camp for the Blind in Waycross, Camp Kudzu for diabetic children in Cleveland and the Top Five program with the Toccoa Rotary for graduating seniors for Stephens County High School. The Toccoa Lions also support financially the Leader Dog School for the Blind, The Recordings for the Blind and Dyslexic and Lions Club International Foundation. Toccoa Lions also collect used eye glasses, cases, hearing aids and cell phones. These are sent to the Georgia Lions Lighthouse Foundation where they are cleaned, refurbished and graded to determine the prescription of the lenses. Last year over 106,000 pairs of glasses were distributed to needy people in foreign countries by the Lions Lighthouse. Money to support all this programming is raised through a variety of fund raising activities all year long in our community. The generosity of people in Toccoa and Stephens County keep the Toccoa Lions programs vibrant. The Toccoa Lions publish a community calendar every year. They hold two pancake breakfasts and host a golf outing in March. The club sells flower bulbs in the fall, mops and brooms as well as walking sticks all year long. The Toccoa Lions sell at public craft fairs, farmers markets and the Harvest Festival. The Toccoa Lions operate a food concession during the Harvest Festival. The Toccoa Lions operate candy and nut vending machines in the community. The club also receives grants from the Mitchell-Allen Foundation and Wal-Mart during the year.

Chief Ray Mattison of the Winder Fire Department discussed what a firefighter wears for safety and how much the equipment costs. A fire fighter, wearing his safety equipment, was present. This gave us a good visual of how the fire fighter must be dressed when fighting a fire. The Noon Lions Club Outstanding Junior Award for April was presented to Nicolai Popescu from Apalachee High School and to Trent Hunter from Winder Barrow High School. Officer Tim Harrell talked to the club about different types of music that are readily available and the possible influence the lyrics can have on our youth. Parents need to be aware of what the lyrics are suggesting and provide positive feedback about how the lyrics should be interpreted.

Brian McCann Joins the Capital Campaign Team

With the support of the Georgia Lions, we are over one-third of the way to our $2.75 million goal! Over a million dollars have been raised for our capital campaign. In addition, Atlanta Braves catcher Brian McCann agreed to be our honorary campaign chair

McCann suffered from blurry vision last year after a LASIK surgery in 2007. He was only able to continue playing professional baseball because of a special pair of glasses made to fit under his mask and to give him peripheral vision.

“Losing my sight could have cost me my job, “ he says. “Fortunately, I had access to quality eye care that kept me in the game and doing what I love. Each year, the Georgia Lions Lighthouse helps thousands of Georgians to see and hear the sights and sounds that help them to be productive and fulfilled. Please support their efforts.”

We are excited about the addition of McCann to our campaign team. Keep an eye on our new website video with McCann’s reasons for supporting the Lighthouse’s capital campaign. To learn more about the campaign and discover where the funds are contact Kyle at 404-325-3630 x 334 or at kgalenski@lionslighthouse.org .

Woodruff Foundation Awards Lighthouse $500,000 Grant

The Georgia Lions Lighthouse Foundation is happy to announce it was recently awarded a $500,000 grant from the Woodruff Foundation. The grant puts us over half-way to our $2.75 million dollar goal, but more important, it shows that others truly believe in the mission and direction of your Lighthouse. To learn more about the capital campaign, including named gift opportunities, please visit www.lionslighthouse.org or contact Kyle at kgalenski@lionslighthouse.org

Lighthouse Capital Campaign FAQ:

How will individuals be recognized for their capital campaign contributions?

There will be a recognition wall at the new home of the Lighthouse. Permanent recognition for individuals starts at $2,500. There will also be a directory of all donors in the new building. Please remember that pledges can be fulfilled over three years.

How will my club be recognized for its capital campaign contribution?

All clubs giving over $1,000 will receive a commemorative banner patch. Clubs giving at the $5,000, $10,000, and $15,000 levels will receive permanent recognition in the building. Naming opportunities are available from $20,000.

Will my individual contribution count for my club?

On the recognition wall, individual and club contributions can be double counted. For example, say John Doe from Roaring Rock Lions Club contributes $5,000 and his club contributes $10,000. Lion John will be recognized as an individual at the $5,000 level, and Roaring Rock will be recognized at the $15,000 level.

Can my individual contribution count toward my club's pledged amount?

No. When Lions Clubs make pledges to the capital campaign, it is with the expectation that the amount of the pledge will come from the club's account. Any additional funds given by the individuals in a club will count toward the amount the club is recognized for in the end, but not toward the club's original pledge. To find out more about recognition and naming opportunities, please contact Kyle at kgalenski@lionslighthouse.org

SERVICE REPORTS:

Vision Clinic Report: In the first nine (9) months of this Lion's Year, we have served 2701 individuals at the Vision Clinics compared to 2051 individuals served for the same period last year. Funding for the Vision Clinics come from grants, which are great but not on going. March 22, 2010 was a big day for the Citizens of Dahlonge and Lumpkin County. It was on this date that the Dahlonge Vision Clinic officially opened. A total of 15 people needy citizens from Lumpkin County were touched when they received a thorough eye exam. For some it was their first eye exam. Special Thanks go out to the members of the Dahlonge Lions Club especially Lions Bill Mundy, David Lancaster, and Gary Vaughters who worked so hard over three years to see this clinic become a reality. I want to Thank Dr Lori Lebeau and Ms. Paula Payne for all their help. Let me encourage you to volunteer to work at one of the Clinics. By working at a Clinic you experience firsthand what Lionism is all about especially when the clients come up and Thank you for we are doing to help them.

Two hundred and thirty six individuals from 18-D have been served at the Clinics during the first nine (9) months of this year compared to 127 individuals for the same period last year. The total cost to operate the Clinics for the first nine (9) months of this Lion's Year is $85,167.66.

Surgery Reports: In the first nine (9) months of this year, the Lighthouse has completed 211 surgeries compared to 263 surgeries for the same period last year. Forty one (41) needy citizens from 18-D have had surgeries in the first nine (9) months of this year compared to 28 for the same period last year. We knew that we could not do as many surgeries this year compared to last year because we overspent on surgeries last year. In addition to the fact that we are paying for initial evaluations. These are a few reasons why our surgery numbers are well below last year's figure.

The costs of surgeries in the first nine (9) months are $1,599,096.53 after receiving discounts of $1,273,995.07; The Lighthouse only paid $325,101.46.

Hearing Aid Program: In the first nine (9) months of this year, the Lighthouse has touched the lives of 727 individuals by providing 1336 hearing aids compared to 1167 hearing aids to 634 individuals for the same period last year.

Eighty-three (83) needy citizens from District 18-D have received 153 hearing aids in the first (9) months of this year compared to 75 people receiving 139 hearing aids for the same period last year.

To Our Fellow Lions:

From everyone who has been given much, much will be required; and to whom they entrusted much, of him they will ask all the more. Luke

In the last few months I have thought a lot about this statement. I have thought about it in reference to living in America and the freedoms that entails. I have thought about it in my personal life with my own personal finances. The most daunting thought of all though has been in direct correlation with my job as your director. I know that I have been entrusted with an amazing opportunity to lead this camp into a new day. I have been entrusted to protect, challenge, motivate, and create amazing opportunities for the Blind of Georgia. I have been entrusted to be a good steward of an amazing organization. I feel like it's a big responsibility. I will be honest and tell you that I am grateful I don't do it alone. You see it's all of our responsibility. You as Lions in this state have been entrusted too. You have been entrusted to support the goals and operations of this camp. You have been entrusted to provide for and maintain these beautiful grounds. This is YOUR camp! You have been entrusted with it. Let that thought sit with you for a moment. What an amazing opportunity we have. No other facility in this state has been entrusted with the task. WE ARE IT! I hope as you reflect upon this amazing place affectionately called GLCB, you swell with pride. I hope that your head gets a little bigger and your steps get a little more bounce in them. May we never forget though that much is required!

Dear Georgia Lions,

Kristen, Bobby and I get such great joy being here daily and working for our Campers' return. Last Friday, I answered the phone to a familiar voice singing his usual message followed by "It's only 13 more weeks!" He's counting every minute in his dark world till he can return to his beloved camp that has changed his life forever. The time spent here is way too short for him and all the rest.

Lions, this "haven" you and your predecessors have developed is a rewarding place to watch and hear the Campers' struggles and groans to reach a bit higher and go a bit farther. We are so pleased that so many of you have given so much this past year. Wow! Much has been accomplished with much left to do.

Our Campers will never see the beauty of our pines and palmettos, the flowering azaleas and dogwoods. They can only imagine!! But what they will always "see" is how much their Lions love them. They're returning to a place where they can sense that love that all 246+ Lions Clubs want for them. If you are one of the Clubs or members that haven't yet sent a donation (General Fund, Century Club, Send-A-Kid-To-Camp, Grand Tour of Georgia, etc.), it's not too late. We appreciate your continued support at any time.

Sincerely,
Carolyn Taylor-Music
Secretary

My Fellow Lions,

I am on the road again this weekend. I am up in Hiawassee to help celebrate 70 years of service by the Towns County Lions Club. Seventy years of service – WOW that is amazing! On the way up here today, I got to put a few bucks into a bucket in Clayton, GA. The Lions of Clayton were busy collection funds for White Cane. We are Lions of service and service to our Camp is what I love. Let's talk about that....

Two weekends ago we were at our Camp for a Work Weekend. WOW – we got a bunch done. Here are a few highlights of what was accomplished:

Replaced the bottom portion of the Siding in the Dining Hall with the concrete based siding. Had to rebuild the entire wall around the main entrance and have started tying the roof line back into the Gazebo. We got a couple more weekends of work on the Dining Hall before it will be 100% done. Rest assured - it will be done before the Camping Season.

Many Lions worked very hard clearing the location for the new Low Ropes Course. Lots of trees and underbrush had to be removed. It looks outstanding!

Planting trees.

Sanding and painting swing sets.

Painting inside the Gazebo.

Two New Camp for the Blind Fundraisers

BASKET SILENT AUCTION

A Tisket, a Tasket, a green and yellow Basket....a poem of our youth, a song by Ella Fitzgerald, or a project of the Camp Fundraising Committee? For some fun and to raise some money for our Camp, we would like to have a Gift Basket Silent Auction during the 2010 State Convention. We are requesting each Lions Club to brainstorm and pick a theme to use in filling a basket to be included in the Silent Auction. Possible ideas to start you thinking are: a bird basket with a birdhouse, book, food, a bird figurine; a beach basket with sunscreen lotion, beach towel, shells, maybe a motel room at the beach; a particular food, like Chinese with a cookbook, Wok, rice, etc; fishing; golf; gardening; auto care; football; college; art supplies; booklover; sweet tooth; dog lover; cat lover; etc, etc, etc. Once you start brainstorming, the ideas are endless. Everyone has an interest in something and will bid on the baskets that strike their fancy. If you include a commercial service, please consider a business with locations all over the state. We would like to have baskets of all value. Please put a list of items that are in the basket on the outside so everyone will know exactly what is in it. Also, let us know your value. We are thinking a minimum of $25 but we will not turn down any. We know of one basket being collected that will be $200. We will have a wonderful display on Friday and Saturday at the State Convention for you to come by and place your bid. Winners will be announced Saturday afternoon so the baskets can be picked up before leaving Tifton. This project can only be successful with the help of your club and its participation. Have some fun preparing yours. We look forward to seeing the results. A REMINDER!! Has your club prepared a Themed Gift Basket yet for the Camp Silent Auction to be held at the State Convention? You still have time to brainstorm for a theme, shop for the items, prepare the basket, and bring it to the Convention in Tifton. If you need help getting your basket to Tifton, you can contact your District's Camp Vice President or Fundraising Committee member: District D – Sylvia Masters. We do request that you tape a list of the items included on the outside of the basket so Lions will know exactly what they are bidding on. All values will be accepted. Please fix a basket for us and help raise money for our Camp!

Fellow Lions:

Blind Carroll Jackson shows the Lions the device he uses to download and read virtually any book.

Carroll Jackson told the Lions how using a leader dog makes mobility much more efficient and safe.

Last year, in Minneapolis, a group of Lions Club members gathered around the hotel welcome desk, trying to get directions to their meeting site during their Convention. The woman behind the desk was trying to tell the men which way to turn at which corner when a blind man with a leader dog walked up to the group with a message that left them dumbfounded: "Follow me."

That man was Carroll Jackson, a 1967 graduate of the Iowa Braille and Sight-Saving School.

Leading others in a world of changing technology is a way of life for Jackson, who went on to college after graduating from IBSSS. He eventually became a principal at the Ohio institute for the Blind and the Superintendent at the Illinois facility.

Jackson returned to Vinton, Iowa this week, where he shared with the Vinton Lions Club the changes he has experienced in technology and leader dog training that help a blind man who has never been to a city before safely and efficiently find his way around it.

First, Jackson showed the Lions the computer device he uses to obtain reading material. Virtually every book -- even college textbooks -- can be downloaded to the hand-held device within minutes. Then Jackson told the Lions that while the technology for obtaining reading materials has changed, the options of on-foot transportation for blind people is the same as it was decades ago: A white cane or a leader dog.

The difference between using a cane and a dog, Jackson told the Lions, is like the difference between having a driver's license and a pilot's license. Then he explained how GPS technology can help him find his way to any building in any city, with the help of his dog. The GPS tells him which street he is on, and which streets are near him.

"All I have to do is say 'find the door' or 'find the elevator' or 'find the room' and I am there," Jackson said. And the dog does the rest. Once the pair has found their way in a new city, the dog remembers the doors, elevators and even the way to the hotel room, he adds.

Jackson is totally blind, but he wears glasses that look like regular prescription lenses. It fools people into thinking he has sight. At one time, he had some tunnel vision. But now, he said, he is totally blind.

The Lions laughed on Tuesday when Jackson told his story about leading the group last year in Minneapolis. "That is not the response I got that day," he recalled. On that day, the group of Lions looked at him silently. Finally, one of them agreed to follow Jackson. The others went along. After the group arrived at the meeting site several blocks away from where they had begun, one of the men asked Jackson how long he had been in Minneapolis.

"It's my first day here," he said.

On another occasion, Jackson was able to use his GPS locator to tell a group of Australians how to find a restaurant for breakfast. He gave them specific directions to a Perkins restaurant. Later the group found him and told him that his directions were totally correct.

Jackson told the local Lions how he is trying to make this kind of safe and efficient mobility possible for more visually-impaired people.

Heroes Growing up All Around You

Who would ever think that a life-enhancing, sometimes life-saving resource could begin as a fuzzy little puppy? At Leader Dogs for the Blind, that's exactly how each four-legged Leader Dog hero gets his start. Future Leader Dogs grow up in homes just like yours, all around the United States.

Volunteer Puppy Raisers name the puppies, teach them house manners, basic obedience and expose them to the world. Puppy raisers are volunteers who generously take puppies into their homes and provide them with health care, food and life experiences. Some raisers are able to bring the puppy to work with them.

"We would not be able to provide Leader Dogs at all if it weren't for volunteer puppy raisers. Right now we have about 400 puppies in 22 states and Canada growing up learning about the world around them. The exposure that the puppy raisers provide is an intricate part of the dog's extensive training needed to become a Leader Dog," said Beverly Blanchard, puppy program development manager for Leader Dogs for the Blind.

Creating a responsible candidate to become a Leader Dog entails a great deal of socialization. The more the puppy sees and experiences during the first year of its life, the more adapting and calm it will be when exposed to future experiences. Many puppy raisers expose their puppies to shopping malls, loud sirens, cats and other animals, different kinds of staircases and floor surfaces, busy sidewalks, bicycles, sporting events, grocery stores, churches and much more.

When the puppies return to Leader Dogs for the Blind, they are thoroughly evaluated for medical soundness and personality traits. Puppies that pass this evaluation are trained one-on-one for the next four months by a professional instructor. The instructor then carefully matches each Leader Dog with an individual who is legally blind. The team trains together at Leader Dogs for the Blind for a month before leaving the facility and returning home.

Leader Dogs are provided completely free to qualified individuals, including travel and 26 days of room and board at the Leader Dog facility. Leader Dogs for the Blind is funded by donations from Lions and Lioness Club members, individuals, foundations and corporations dedicated to community service.

For more information, call Leader Dogs for the Blind at (888) 777-5332 or visit www.leaderdog.org.

14,000th Team Graduates

Our most recent dog guide class had the distinction of graduating our 14,000th Leader Dog team! This comes out to an average of 197 teams per year. The person to receive the distinction of being number 14,000 is Randy Cook from Aurora, Illinois. Randy received his 3rd Leader Dog, "Solomon," on March 10th.

Randy is a blind rehabilitation teacher with the Department of Human Services who is a graduate of Western Michigan University. Randy credits Leader Dog with building his self-confidence, increasing his mobility, and improving his travel skills.

Man's best friend brings help, smiles

Andy Bush, 36, pets his dog Seagar, a trained assistance dog, during a walk near his Harrisburg home. Bush, who suffered a brain injury as a child, received Seagar from Canine Companions for Independence. Meghan Cooke - macooke@newsocabarrus.com

A little girl tugged on her mom's pants and pointed at the yellow Labrador retriever strolling through a Harrisburg grocery store last week. A curious employee peered over a stack of fruit. Seagar didn't notice. He was working. Gloria Bush of Harrisburg pushed her son, Andy, in his wheelchair through the store as Seagar, Andy's trained assistance dog, tagged along.

The Bush family received 2-year-old Seagar in November from Canine Companions for Independence. Seagar responds to more than 50 commands. He uses his nose to push round handicapped buttons to open automatic doors when Gloria is pushing Andy's wheelchair, and he even helps take off Andy's socks. But for Andy, having Seagar around isn't about having a helping hand. It's about having a friend.

"Having Seagar around makes him smile," Gloria said. When Andy was 2 years old, he snuck out of the house and fell into a construction ditch filled with rainwater as he tried to reach a ball in the water. Gloria found him floating face down. He suffered brain damage as a result of lack of oxygen to the brain. Now 36 years old, Andy can't do much on his own. He requires help for basic tasks.

"Seagar is the perfect dog for Andy," said Gloria, explaining that Seagar isn't demanding of her time. "He's very giving." The Bush family was on Canine Companions for Independence's waiting list for two years before Andy, Gloria and her husband, Roy, were invited to the organization's southeast regional center in Orlando, Fla., for a two-week training session in November to learn commands and how to care for Seagar, whom they received for free. CCI, headquartered in California, gave out more than 240 assistance dogs last year. Seagar is meant to provide companionship and a means of socialization for Andy, said Martha Johnson, spokeswoman for CCI.

Seagar jumped to put his front paws on Andy's lap, drawing a grin from Andy. Seagar goes out to eat with the Bushes, and goes on walks with them around the Town Center neighborhood in Harrisburg. Gloria said Andy has been calmer and more content since they brought Seagar home.

"Where's Seagar?" Gloria asked her son. Andy glanced around the room and his eyes settled on Seagar sleeping on his pillow on the floor before looking back to his mother. "There's Seagar."

Special Diabetes Programs

Legislation to increase funding for diabetes research.

Since 1997, the Special Diabetes Programs have provided critical funding for diabetes research, prevention, and education at the Indian Health Service (IHS) and the National Institutes of Health (NIH). These are substantial type 1 diabetes research programs and prevention and treatment programs for Native American communities.

Legislative Update

- Sept. 29, 2009 – H.R. 3668 was introduced in the House of Representatives by Reps. Diana DeGette (D-CO) and Mike Castle (R-DE), co-chairs of the House Diabetes Caucus.
- March 3, 2010 – S. 3058 introduced in the Senate by Senators Byron Dorgan (D-ND) and Susan Collins (R-ME). **Take Action!**
- Both bills will renew the Special Diabetes Programs for five years and includes $200 million per year in federal funding for each program.

Special Statutory Funding Program for Type 1 Diabetes Research (SDP-Type 1)

SDP-Type 1 is special funding for research on the prevention and cure of type 1 diabetes. It provides researchers the chance they need to carry out long-term research that can have an impact on thousands of lives.

SDP-Type 1 has led to real advances in many areas of type 1 diabetes research. Demonstrating an excellent return on federal investment, it has yielded advances in drugs and therapies for halting and reversing diabetic complications.

Special Diabetes Program for Indians (SDPI)

SDPI gives Indian health programs and tribal communities the resources and tools they need to both prevent and treat diabetes. American Indians and Alaska Natives have the highest age-adjusted prevalence of diabetes among all U.S. racial and ethnic groups – nearly 17%!

SDPI funding has led to demonstrated and continued improvements in diabetes prevention and care in American Indian and Alaska Native communities. These improvements ultimately benefit all people with diabetes.

Funding nearly 400 community-directed programs, local tribes and health programs are provided the opportunity to set priorities that meet the needs of the community, whether it be prevention activities or treatment.

These needed programs help translate the science of diabetes into real-world settings by providing improved care for our patients and prevention efforts that are turning the hope of a diabetes-free future into a reality.

International Friendships

The International Club Twinning Program is a voluntary and mutual agreement between clubs in different countries. Lions and Leos can participate; however, twinning must occur between like clubs (i.e., Lions with Lions, Leos with Leos).

Twinning provides an opportunity to learn about another club and its culture. Club twins actively illustrate the Third Purpose of the Association, To create and foster a spirit of understanding among the peoples of the world.

Members of international organizations often develop international friendships. This is certainly true of Lions and Leos who attend international forums or conventions. After an initial meeting, Lions or Leos often continue their friendship through long-distance correspondence. After many months or years, the two clubs may decide to formalize their friendship as international club twins.

At this time, the two clubs may decide to sign the International Club Twinning Recognition Application (IAD 603) and become club twins. Often, the clubs organize a formal signing ceremony to celebrate the official club twinning relationship.

Joining Forces to Help Youth

To help local Lions fulfill the needs of the children and adolescents in their communities, Lions Clubs International (LCI) maintains partnerships with several outstanding organizations that provide assistance to youth.

Scouts

LCI has worked in cooperation with the Girl Scouts of America and the Boy Scouts of America for decades. Around the world, Lions clubs have sponsored thousands of Scout troops. And today, Lions clubs sponsor more Scout troops than any other non-religious organization in the USA.

America's Promise

LCI is part of America's Promise – a consortium of 250 businesses, organizations and government agencies. America's Promise strives to provide the five fundamental resources children need to succeed – caring adults, safe places, a healthy start, an effective education and opportunities to help others.

Youth Service America (YSA)

YSA increases the quality and quantity of volunteer opportunities for young people, ages five to 25, to serve locally, nationally and globally. LCI supports YSA by encouraging Lions clubs and members to participate in National Youth Service Day (USA) and Global Youth Service Day.

The Hadley School for the Blind

Hadley provides free distance education for blind or visually impaired individuals who are at least 14 years of age – and for relatives/family members of the blind or visually impaired. Lions work with Hadley to help enroll people who can benefit from these free courses.

Liberty Day

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL PROGRAM

When Liberty Day launched 14 years ago, our motto was simple: "A Constitution in every pocket."

This remains one of our main goals today—to make sure that every American has a copy of the Constitution readily available to them. But we know that most students who get a copy probably won't just casually read the document.

That's why Liberty Day is a sole-source provider of copies of the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution, along with educational materials on our nation's founding documents, to schools.

However, we can only accomplish our mission of providing teachers with free, helpful, effective teaching resources with the financial help of organizations, businesses, individuals, and citizens like you! Read on to learn more about how you can help get these essential materials into the hands of 5th graders by adopting a class, a school, or a school district.

If your Lions Club is interested in sponsoring a Liberty Day project with a Scout group, please contact your District Liberty Day Chair or Lil Shurtleff, MD Liberty Day Chair.
