District 18-D Bulletin

MONTHLY BULLETIN FOR LIONS OF NORTHEAST GEORGIA

May 2008

District Governor Ruth Payton

Dear Lions of 18-D:

We have reached the time of the year when we begin to take stock in what we have accomplished during the past ten months, and what lies ahead of us. For clubs and club officers who participate, it is time to begin applying for State Awards and for individual achievements.

Let me encourage you to consider applying for State Awards. This is an opportunity to receive recognition for the many projects that you all have done as a Lions club. Club officers need to look in the back of your Lions State Directory for the listing and descriptions of State Awards. By the very nature of doing some of the things that you do, your club qualifies for many awards.

Now is the time to look over the State Awards to which you qualify, decide which ones you wish to apply for, and take a little time to apply. Should you have any question regarding these awards, please contact Lion Bryson Tanner, who represents our District on the State Awards committee. The District Governor's Contest is now over and the tally begins.

Contributing to our various Lions projects is a continuous concern throughout the Lions year. If you have not contributed as of this date, I encourage you to do so as soon as possible. Of immediate concern of course is this is the final two months for Campaign SightFirst 2 – I have noticed that some individual Lions only have a few hundred dollars to contribute to become Melvin Jones Fellows and some clubs also have a few hundred to go in order to name a Melvin Jones Fellow – PLEASE contribute.

I am looking forward to seeing many of you at the Lions State Convention in Marietta. The committee for the State Convention has been hard at work, to give us, the Lions of Georgia, a great convention.

Please remember and continue to find new members. We have to open up and extend our hands to the younger generation. We have to guide, shape and mold, and let it be known “We are the Lions of your community and we’re here to do what needs to be done.” We also need as many Lions to participate not only in Club affairs, but also in District and State affairs. This includes the Lighthouse and Camp for the Blind. We cannot be selfish and not spread the word among fellow Lions that there is more outside of the club and community in regards to need.

At the beginning of this Lion's year – there was a question = “how does your community perceive your club and its activities? Are we making a difference in people's lives because of our activities?” Did you take the “Challenge to Change” and do more than what was called for?

As always, I sure am thankful that I know most of you and I am proud to be a Lion with you all.

1 June – Helen Keller Day in 1971, LCI declared 1 June as “Helen Keller Day” in honor of this amazing woman who holds a special place in the hearts of Lions everywhere. At a Lions convention in 1925, Helen Keller personally challenged Lions to become “Knights of the Blind” and since then Lions have conducted countless sight conservation efforts. We encourage Lions to take this opportunity to conduct blindness related service activities in their communities.

The marvelous richness of human experience would lose something of rewarding joy if there were no limitations to overcome. The hilltop hour would not be half so wonderful if there were no dark valleys to traverse.

Editor's Note

Fellow Lions:

MEMBERSHIP NOTICES

We all need a friendly reminder to let us know that there will be a meeting coming up. It has been done; I hate to say, for many years. Now you might say that is old fashion and out of date. Well, believe me – there are a number of Lions Clubs that are still doing such a thing. In fact one that I get twice a month by e-mail is in order to save on the cost of stamps is as follows:

Monday, April 14, 2008

Jefferson Club House
302 Long View Dr., Jefferson GA.
Meal – 6:30 p.m. Meeting – 7:00 p.m.

Program: The speaker will be our very own Lion Andy Wickman. Andy will speak to us briefly about the upcoming Ride-for-Sight.

Please don't forget White Cane Day is this Saturday, I'm sure I will see everyone there.

Thanks!
Lion Mark Bradley

And for those who do not have e-mail addresses, this is what is mailed:

Jefferson Lions Club

Now I hope the latter is done by Post-Card and not mailed in an envelope. In fact, I hope they also send to guests that have been invited in the past. I also know that there are a few more clubs within our District that does the same.

So, do not be shy, in fact, many organizations do the same thing – they REMIND their membership that a meeting is just around the corner. So you can't say this is old fashion and others don't do it.

What creative means do you do in your club?

Have you taken the "Challenge for Change?"

Also, why not tell others about this – it just might bring might bring some other kind of results:

Dear Club Officers:

As the end of our leadership year approaches I would like to congratulate you on a job well done. I would also like to remind you that we have the potential to make this excellent year an historic year.

We currently have over 10,000 more Lions than we did at the start of the year and we are well positioned to end the year with a positive gain in worldwide membership. As you know, membership fluctuates throughout the year and it is likely that this number will be reduced by the end of June – but it is imperative that we not give back everything we have worked so hard to gain. This makes it even more important than usual to retain the interest, commitment and membership of current Lions.

You have all done a marvelous job embracing the challenge to change. Everywhere I travel I see newly reinvigorated clubs benefiting from family membership and the addition of more women and young people. These innovative programs and strategies are largely responsible for our membership increase to date.

But membership retention goes back to the basics – back to the reason we all became Lions. People come to Lions Clubs because “We Serve.” They stay for the same reason.

I would be pleased if all clubs all over the world took an “entrepreneurial” approach to service. The best, most effective clubs actively seek-out new service opportunities and experiment with new methods of meeting their communities’ most pressing needs. Not surprisingly clubs such as these are not only the most effective, their retention rates are also among the highest.

All Lions want to:

- be challenged and to learn from new experiences
- have an opportunity for hands-on participation
- be valued for contributing new ideas as well as appreciated for their hard work.

Providing members with these positive experiences is the best way for your club to improve its retention rate.

Enthusiastic participation in special projects of the entire association also improves retention and makes clubs more visible and attractive to new members. According to a report by First Vice President Albert F. Brandel, membership statistics improved in the years following the first Campaign SightFirst. Now, CSFII offers your club an ideal way to increase its visibility and inspire your members.

We are striving toward our US$200 million challenge goal, and Lions worldwide have an opportunity to channel their service for CSFII in one unified initiative.

During the week of May 11-17, 2008, I am asking all Lions and clubs to select one Campaign SightFirst II Day. During this week, I encourage you to gather your club members to save sight by acting for CSFII. Our combined efforts stand to change lives and change the world, whether your club:

- makes a Club Commitment
- chooses to use the Power of 30 by each donating US$180 and saving the sight of 30 people each
- pledges one new Melvin Jones Fellowship each year over the next three years
- conducts an additional fund-raising event

In fact, through a Club Commitment, you and the Lions in your club have an opportunity to make a much larger impact through SightFirst since commitments can be fulfilled over three to five years.

We have less than 12 weeks remaining to add to the success of CSFII and help reach our US$200 million challenge goal. When Lions work toward a challenge, our service can accomplish amazing things. Lions, we can change the world. As a club officer, begin to talk with your club members to see how your Campaign SightFirst II Day efforts will deliver a lifetime of sight to individuals who need Lions’ help....

I would also like to remind you that we will soon have a wonderful new tool for membership management. “Real-time” reporting begins this month. Club secretaries should take special note: the closing date for March membership reports is April 28. The closing date for April will be April 30. All membership activity must now be reported in the month in which it occurs. This will provide something that will benefit us all – timely, accurate “snapshots” of our membership so that we might more effectively evaluate our efforts in this critical area.

Thank you again for the excellent work you have done over the past nine months and for everything you will do between now and June to ensure that we leave an historic legacy of our leadership year.

Sincerely,
Mahendra Amarasuriya
International President

RETENTION!

Let's think about it.....and ask, what have I done to close the backdoor?

"Membership Retention – Routine Maintenance, Not Rocket Science"

Motivating Others – Every club member has a different personality and different factors that motivate him/her to do a good job. An effective chairperson will foster those motivational factors and keep the people he/she supervises focused.

Some typical motivators in a volunteer opportunity include:

- Desire to do a good job
- Desire to help those in need
- Sense of achievement
- Recognition/praise
- Social acceptance/popularity
- Influence/leadership
- Opportunity to develop skills
- Opportunity to try something new
- Enjoy challenges
- Opportunity to learn/discover
- Feeling of well being
- Improve physical and mental health

Good communication provides a solid foundation for motivating your club/district to do their best.

Offering praise for a job well done, encouragement through tough tasks and advice when needed will go a long way in keeping your individuals motivated and focused. Some other tips for successfully motivating others include:

- Keep individuals informed regarding policies, procedures and program updates
- Delegate activities to challenge individuals
- Give praise freely and promptly for a job well done
- Have a positive, caring attitude
- Be a good listener
- Treat individuals with respect
- Ask for their suggestions and input
- Maintain high standards
- Celebrate achievements

Exploring, Learning and Growing

Through their involvement with Lions clubs, members experience accomplishment and satisfaction...and the opportunity to pursue their own personal growth and well being.

We meet new people, identify new problems, create new solutions and build new skills. We have the opportunity to develop friendships, both locally and worldwide that can last a lifetime. In the process, we enhance our own wellness and sense of purpose. Recent studies have shown that the social engagement and physical activity associated with volunteering are also associated with stronger immunity, better health and greater longevity.

The flexibility to choose our own service projects enables us to explore, learn and grow. While improving the lives of others, we're improving our own. It's a "win-win" for all of us.

Explore, learn and grow with us.

We're the new generation of Lions. Join us today.

CLUB REPORTS

This is another way of getting Lions in your club, new members and prospective members interested in doing something new and different. Getting involved is another word for WE SERVE.

Certain things can happen when your Lions Club gets involved. If we have to find something new – go for it – because the more we raise – the more we can give. Also, the more members who get involved also create a bundle of fun and more money raised. The information that appears may benefit another club – for here is where we get ideas and we might be able to use those ideas within your own club.

Clarksville Lions Club – The clubs forefathers helped build Habersham Medical Center in Demorest, and to carry on with tradition the club members met with the Hospital Authority and donated $1,000 per member ( $33,000) for the badly needed helipad that is included in the hospitals expansion plans. Clarkesville Lions are conjectured to be the only club to be 100% members of both the Ten Million Dollar Club and Tom Bingham Fellows.

Clinic Success Story: Eddie Smith

Eddie came to St. Mary's Community Center for an initial exam on November 9th, 2007. Eddie, like many of our patients in Savannah, had uncontrolled diabetes.

Diabetes can cause your vision to fluctuate and when your sugars are not under control, your vision becomes poor. If your diabetes is so uncontrolled, patients are unable to receive prescriptions for eyeglasses. Their vision varies too much on a daily basis. Eddie was one of these patients.

We told Eddie that he was going to be unable to receive a pair of glasses from us because they really wouldn't help. We told him to get his sugar under control and then he could come back.

And he did. Eddie took this advice to heart and realized that he could go blind. He set up appointments with the local free clinic, Community Health Mission, to help him manage his diabetes and within 4 weeks, he was able to get his sugar under control. His hemoglobin A1C, a test that is a good indicator of diabetic control, was perfect.

He was able to get his glasses in December.

“New Guy” on the block at Leader Dog School

Dear Lion,

As the “new guy” here on our Rochester campus, I have been amazed at the level of support that is provided to Leader Dogs for the Blind, by Lions, Lioness and Leo Clubs. Your support makes it possible for us to offer services such as:

- Training for some 250 person/Leader Dog teams per year.

- The only dog guide program in North America for people who are both deaf and blind.

- “Trekker” GPS training for consumers (including teens) who are blind or visually impaired, and “train the trainer” sessions for professionals from across the United States and Canada.

- Intensive Orientation and Mobility Training to help individuals who are visually impaired become more independent.

- Computer training to give people who are blind basic, marketable communications and job skills.

Your efforts bring real changes to the lives of others. Believe me when I say that words cannot express how grateful we are for the incredibly loyal commitment by Lions, Lioness, and Leo Clubs to the people we serve.

In recognition of that long standing commitment, I’m happy to say that I was recently installed as a member of the Rochester, Michigan Lions Club. Many thanks to International Director and Emeritus Leader Dog President & CEO Bill Hansen, who graciously offered to act as my sponsor. I am proud and excited to be a new Lion!

We remain committed to keeping you accurately informed of our programs, students and funding.

Best wishes for an enjoyable spring as we move into this last quarter of our Lionistic year.

Sincerely,

Gregory Grabowski, (“Lion Greg”)
President & CEO

PS: We appreciate the opportunity to participate in your Multiple District Convention May 16-18, 2008 in Marietta. Out Leader Dog Graduate Leonard Quinn and Leader Dog “Ginger” (from Wisconsin) have been selected to attend your event. He is Past President of the Ripon Lions Club – the club responsible for convincing him that he should have a Leader Dog. In June 2007, he received the Birch Sturm Fellow – this is the highest Lions award given in the state of Wisconsin. Lion Len’s knowledge of Leader Dog includes about our history and our newest programs and he is looking forward to fully participate in your activities.

A seminar about Strides: Lions Walk for Diabetes Awareness was held during the 89th Annual Lions Clubs International Convention in Boston, Massachusetts, USA.

Seminar attendees participated in the inaugural Strides Lions Walk to the convention exhibit hall.

Strides: Lions Walk for Diabetes Awareness is an exciting and active method of informing the public about diabetes, the leading cause of new cases of blindness in adults. In 1984, the International Association of Lions Clubs adopted the Diabetes Awareness Program in an effort to reduce new cases of diabetic retinopathy.

Today, every Lions club, district, and multiple district can organize a Strides: Lions Walk for Diabetes Awareness. The Strides Information Packet details how to implement a Strides Lions Walk in your community.

Youth Camp and Exchange Program Update

New and Improved Directory

The new Youth Camp and Exchange Program Directory is organized in alphabetical order by country (USA is broken down by state) and includes all reported camp and chairperson details (from submitted Annual District/Multiple District Youth Camp and Exchange Reports). The directory is updated bi-monthly and lists youth camps, and names and contact details of youth camp and exchange (YCE) chairpersons.

Youth Camp and Exchange Chairpersons are able to use the new directory in order to establish direct contact with chairpersons in other districts and multiple districts. To update or include your camp or chairperson details in the directory, please submit the Annual District/Multiple District Youth Camp and Exchange Report form (sent to all district governors and council chairpersons in July/August) to the Youth Programs Department. For more information contact ye@lionsclubs.org.

Youth Camp and Exchange Program Participant Application

The revised participant application (formerly "youth exchange visitor application") is available in two formats, Excel and as a PDF. The PDF can be used as in the past. The Excel version allows the form to be filled out electronically and e-mailed to youth camps and exchange chairpersons, host Lions clubs.

A European version of the application is also now available on-line, as some countries require a European version of the application. You can find all three applications on the Youth Programs Web page by clicking: Youth Programs, Youth Camps and Exchange, Youth, participant application form.

THINGS TO CONSIDER WHEN INTERACTING WITH A CHILD (OR ANY- ONE ELSE FOR THAT MATTER):

- * When a child is having a bad day, be silent, sit with them, and just be there.
- * Never pretend to be something you're not.
- * Never try to act differently when teaching a child.
- * Most of the time, a child can read clearly whether you're being real / truthful with them.
- * Listen more than you speak. You were given two ears and one mouth.
- * Notice the good more than you notice the bad.
- * Laugh, Laugh, and Laugh some more!

STUDY ENCOURAGES CORNEA DONATION UP TO AGE 75

Older corneas seem to transplant as well as younger ones, says a major new study that promises to expand the age of cornea donation to 75.

It may sound surprising. After all, when it comes to most types of transplants, younger organs and tissue are more coveted.

But government-funded researchers randomly assigned cornea recipients to get either younger or older tissue and found the corneas of both groups survived just as well five years later. The study is published Tuesday in the journal Ophthalmology.

"There was a bias against older tissue," said Dr. Jonathan Lass of University Hospitals Case Medical Center in Cleveland, one of the study's authors. "This is going to change our view of that."

The cornea is the clear covering for the front of the eye, important for helping it focus light. More than 39,000 corneal transplants were performed last year, according to the Eye Bank Association of America.

Enough corneas have been available so far for those seeking transplants in the U.S. But specialists say there are international shortages, and eye banks fear U.S. supplies will tighten as a result of tougher Food and Drug Administration donor-safety rules that began last summer, increasing interest in using older donors where possible.

To see whether age mattered, the National Eye Institute funded the new work at 80 medical centers around the country. Researchers recruited about 1,000 people in their 60s and 70s who needed new corneas because of two conditions that destroyed their own — a swelling known as Fuch's dystrophy and a complication of cataract surgery — that together account for almost half of corneal transplants.

Participants were divided into two groups, getting corneas either from donors ages 12 to 65 or from those 66 to 75. Then researchers tracked how often the transplant failed, because the cornea was rejected or turned cloudy. Five years later, 86 percent of both groups still had successful transplants.

There are two caveats:

— The researchers only tested people 60 and older with conditions that put them at medium risk of transplant failure. But about 20 percent of corneal transplants are in younger adults whose transplants seldom fail. The study doesn't address whether a 20-year-old would be OK with a 75-year-old cornea, just that the age didn't matter to older patients.

— Also, Lass led a closer look at the fate of those endothelial cells responsible for preventing corneas from turning cloudy. The average 30-year-old has about 1 million of those cells on his or her cornea, but the cells die off at a rate of about half a percent a year, he said. For unknown reasons, transplanted corneas rapidly lose more than half their endothelial cells before the density plateaus.

Older transplanted corneas did lose slightly more endothelial cells than did those from younger donors, but the difference wasn't statistically significant — nor was there any difference in cloudiness, Lass said. Still, the researchers will continue to track these patients for five more years to see whether the cell loss eventually makes a practical difference.
